MARDI GRAS

Sunday, February 16, 10—11:30am

Come celebrate Madi Gras—OSLC style! The fun begins after worship, with creole cuisine, zydeco music, and lots of fun! It will be a party second to none! This special event brings our church family together for fun, food, and fellowship as we prepare for Lent. Come chase cabin fever away!

2—LENTEN BOOK STUDY VIA ZOOM

This Lent, the La Crosse Synod Church in Society Committee invites you to a meaningful book study on When a Line Becomes a River by Francisco Cantú, a powerful memoir that explores the complexities of immigration, border enforcement, and human dignity. Meeting on ZOOM each Sunday evening (March 9, 16, 23, and April 6) from 6:30-7:30pm, this study will provide a space for reflection, discussion, and faithful engagement with the realities of life at the U.S.—Mexico border. Members of our recent Border Immersion trip will join the conversation, sharing their firsthand experiences and insights. Together, we will explore themes of justice, mercy, and the call to love our neighbors, deepening our Lenten journey through stories that challenge and inspire us.
